

Dear Youth Minister,

December 2009

Enclosed are brochures and a poster for our RUN 4 VOCATIONS which will take place at Christian Brothers Academy on April 24, 2010. As you read the brochure, you will find our unique concept of “raising prayers, not money” for those we know who are considering marriage, single life, diocesan priesthood, diaconate or religious life and for those who are presently living their commitments to these vocations. Our event is meant to raise vocation awareness and to also witness to the message on our event T-Shirt Logo: “Everyone has a vocation. What’s yours?” Note too, that Kim and Reggie Harris will be with us for the kick-off on that day.

We want this to be a diocesan-wide event. We are inviting parishes, youth ministry groups, faith formation classes and schools throughout the diocese to run or walk for vocations. We are setting up designated prayer sites throughout the diocese for those who cannot join us on that day, but would like to pray for the intentions of our RUN. The pledges for the day are prayers, not dollars! One may pledge to pray during Mass for each lap a person walks, etc.

We will recognize the parish, youth ministry group, faith formation class and school who has the greatest representation at the RUN 4 VOCATIONS. A separate group registration form is included. You can register your group for the reduced fee of $10.00 each teen. We ask for your group list with your non-refundable check payable to the RCDA Vocation Office. Each teen, though listed on your group registration form, will need to complete the brochure registration and enclosed health/waiver forms individually too. All of this we need to have mailed to us by April 1, 2010 to the Vocation Office at the Pastoral Center in Albany. Each registered teen from your group will receive lunch and a T-shirt (first 300 registered are guaranteed a T-shirt). e

Thank you for promoting and encouraging this event. I will be at future Youth Ministry Meetings and will gladly answer any questions you may have, or please feel free to contact me anytime at the email or phone # below.

With best wishes for blessings upon you and your ministry,

Sister Rosemary Ann Cuneo, C.R.
